NAACP DC JOINS ATTORNEY BEN CRUMP & TAMIKA MALLORY, STANDING WITH THE FAMILY OF SHANQUELLA ROBINSON

WASHINGTON, D.C. – The NAACP DC Branch joins Attorney Benjamin Crump, Esq., Tamika Mallory of Until Freedom and the family of Shanquella Robinson for a press conference calling for justice in the death of Shanquella Robinson on Friday, March 3, 2023 at 10:30AM in front of the Ben Crump Law Office located in the NCNW Building at 633 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20004.

Shanquella Robinson was a black women killed while vacationing in Mexico in October 2022. Attorney’s Benjamin Crump, Esq. and Sue-Ann Robinson are urging diplomatic intervention to prioritize accountability for those responsible for Shanquella Roninson’s death. Attorney Robinson recently returned from Mexico on a fact-finding mission and met with Mexican authorities to discuss the case. Until Freedom and the NAACP DC Branch will stand with the family of Shanquella Robinson to call for justice and accountability for a life lost.

Akosua Ali, NAACP DC Branch President, stated, “Black women deserve to been seen, uplifted and protected whether in the U.S. or traveling internationally. As we begin women’s history month, we remind the world to support Black women through action, advocacy and justice.”
